The 741 Center Presents Western Round Up 2008

Good food, great music, fun, and prizes are guaranteed at the WESTERN ROUND-UP dinner dance to be held Friday, September 19th, 2008 from 5:30 pm to 9:00 pm at the 741 Center located at 570 N. State Rt. 741, near Lebanon. Appetizers will be served at 5:30 PM, followed by our famous BBQ rib or chicken dinner at 6:00 PM. Live music and dancing begin at 6:30PM by Steve Lake and his Swingmasters Country Western Band.

The band is based here in Warren County and has an impressive list of credits backing such stars as Crystal Gayle, the Staler Brothers, Boxcar Willie, Connie Smith, Lynn Anderson, Guy and Ralna, Jeannie Seely, Helen Cornelius and many more. Steve Lake and his Swingmasters have also appeared at the Grand Ole Opry, WWVA Jamboree and the Renfro Valley Barn Dance.

The root beer bar will be back again this year as well as line dancing lessons. Get your caricatures drawn by artist Joyce Wells or dance with our favorite Chick-fil-A dancing cow.

“This is an annual event that you don’t want to miss. It’s country music at it's best,” says Michelle Carpenter, Senior Center Coordinator. “We try to do something different each year but always have a variety of door prizes donated from area businesses, including floral arrangements, gifts certificates and surprises. Tickets sell quickly, so don’t wait -- come on it and make sure there is a spot for you.”

Tickets cost only $12.00 for the dinner dance thanks to primary sponsors Kettering Medical Network, Otterbein Retirement Living Community, AAA Royal Tours, Lebanon Health Care Center and Mason Health Care. To purchase tickets or for more information, please contact Michelle Carpenter at 513-695-2239 or e-mail michellec@wccsinc.org.
