For Immediate Release:

SENIORS: GET INFORMED and PROTECT LIFE EARNINGS

Estate Planning Seminars that specifically focus on the needs of seniors will be sponsored by The 741 Senior Center. The three seminars will be held each Tuesday afternoon from October 6 through October 20 from 3:00 p.m. – 4:30 p.m. in the Multi-purpose Room at The 741 Center – 570 N. State Rt. 741 – Lebanon, OH. The presenter will be Michael J. Millonig, Attorney at Law.

“Our seniors are genuinely concerned about planning for their future. The economic crisis has really impacted how people plan for their retirement, families, and who they care about most,” states Michelle Carpenter, Coordinator of The 741 Center. Carpenter noted that is in not a sales presentation and attendees are not required to share their personal information.

The specific topics are:

October 6 - “Protecting Your Estate from Nursing Home Costs”

October 13 – “Estate Planning and Elder Law Overview”

October 20 - “Using Trusts in Estate Planning”

Millonig is certified as an Elder Law Attorney by the National Elder Law Foundation and an Ohio State Bar Association Board Certified Estate Planning, Trust and Probate Specialist. Millonig practices law in the Washington Township/Centerville area.

To assure adequate handouts are available, reservations are requested and can be made by calling 513-695-2239 or E-mail michellec@wccsinc.org. Seminars are free.
