Ohio Benefit Bank Comes to Blanchester Library

If you are unsure if you are eligible for food stamps, a medical card or child care assistance, the Ohio Benefit Bank program can check out your eligibility. This free service and access is now available at the Blanchester Library the third Tuesday of each month. This program helps any Blanchester resident of Clinton or Warren counties who may need help with access to benefits. The Ohio Benefit Bank is sponsored by the Governor's Faith based initiative offices.

Blanchester residents may contact a trained Ohio Benefit Bank counselor by calling Warren County Community Services, Inc. (WCCS) to request an appointment with a trained Benefit Bank volunteer. Appointments are scheduled for the third Tuesday of each month. Residents must bring certain documentation and must complete the application process by making a follow-up appointment with Jobs and Family Services in their respective county.

For more information or to schedule an appointment with an Ohio Benefit Bank volunteer, please contact WCCS at 937-783-4993, Ext 2249 or 513-695-2249.
